A VASE AS A SCULPTURE CARVED FROM CRYSTAL

Hand-blown and hand-cut Montagne vases stand out with their singular colour combination. A darker, underlaid aurora layer smoothly transitions to a mild shade of alexandrite glass. The vases gain strong pastel colours thanks to their robust cut walls that lend them an almost sculpture-like character.

PERFECTION HIDES IN THE DETAILS

The sparkling cut and warm colours will bring energy to your home. The precisely cut sides of the vase are reminiscent of a gemstone. And, just like a gemstone, Montagne will become the immediate centre of attention. The vases are available with a height of 30 cm, and in a mini version with a height of 13 cm.

A VASE INSPIRED BY MOUNTAIN PEAKS

The name of the vase derives from the French word “montagne” (mountain), which is reflected in the resulting cut. The inspiration of mountain peaks at sunrise and sunset also found expression in the choice of colours.
